President Grant's "Loyalty"-The American Official Action Generally Endorsed. LONDON, May 27, 1870.

The course of the President and the American officials in connection with the raids forms a topic uppermost in newspaper comment and general con-

The London Times again expresses its admiration for the loyalty and vigor displayed by President Grant. It is unable, however, to express its indig-nation at the object for which the American and nation at the object for which the American and Canadian troops have been put in motion. It applies to the affair such words as "abountable," "pillage," "slaughter," "outrageous," "murderers," &c.

The London Standard (tory and High Church) tainks that the United States government has no motive to embroil itself with Great Britain on a question so contemptible as the Fenian business.

The London News (liberall refers to the vigilant Canadian government, the firm attitude taken by the United States and the ab-olate imbedility of the Fenians to prove that further aggressions upon Canada are, if not impossible, at least improbable.

Davitt and Wilson, alleged Fenians, were arrested in this city to-day on information given the authorities by Corydon, the government spy and informer.

Postponement of the Boat Race Between the Midshipmen at Annapolls and the Quaker ANNAPOLIS, May 27, 1870.

A violent northeast storm has prevailed here since last night and is still raging. The boat race between the Midshipmen's Club and the Quaker City Club, of Philadelphia, does not take place this afternoon, as a boat could not live for a moment on the Severa. The race will come off to morrow foremoon after the arrival of the Washington and Baltimore train, should the storm abate. There were quite a number of people here to witness the race.

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.

Republican Triumph in Richmond and Petersburg-A Bailot Box Rifled in Rich-

RICHMOND, May 27, 1870. The rejoicings of the conservatives last night were remature. The counting of the ballots show that the republicans have elected George Cahoon Mayor and their city ticket. Their majority on the city ticket will be about 800. Despite a driving rain, which has been failing all day, the republicans held a meeting in front of the Custom House this alternoon. Many speeches were made and much enthusiasm prevailed.

This morning as the ballot in Jefferson ward was being taken to the City Hall the bearer was assailed in the streets, the box broken and the ballots scattered. They had been counted, so it will make no difference in the vote. In the vote.

In Petersburg the republicans elected their mayor by 500 majority, but the conservatives have a large majority in the Council.

The republicans carry Farmville, and the conservatives carry Charlottesville, Danville and Staunton.

Conservative Success in Alexandria.

The conservative ticket is elected by about 130 majority. The radicals carry one ward, and elect a negro Councilman and one negro Magistrate. The vote is not yet counted.

The Election in Norfolk and Portsmouth-The Result in Norfolk Undetermined. NORPOLK, May 27, 1870.

The result of the municipal election yesterday can-not be known until the official returns are given. The vote is very close. The last report gives the con-servative ticket thirty majority. Business houses were closed yesterday, and both sides polled a full vote.

The radical ticket in Portsmouth—headed by Phi-p Thomas for Mayor—was elected by a considerable majority.
